

THREE FACES MANAGEMENT

John Patitucci - Brief Bio 2016

John Patitucci has been at the forefront of the jazz world for the last 30 years and active in all styles of music. He is a three-time Grammy award winner, has been nominated over fourteen times and has played on many other Grammy award-winning recordings. John has performed and/or recorded with jazz giants such as Dizzy Gillespie, Wayne Shorter, Herbie Hancock, Chick Corea, Stan Getz, Freddie Hubbard, Roy Haynes, Wynton Marsalis, Michael Brecker and countless others and is a long time member of the Wayne Shorter Quartet. He has been active as a composer has been commissioned to write for various chamber music groups. He has performed as a soloist with the Swedish Chamber Orchestra, the Estonian National Symphony, the Scottish Chamber Orchestra, the Trondheim Symphony of Norway, the St. Louis Symphony and the London Symphony Orchestra. He is currently a Visiting Scholar at Berklee College of Music's Global Jazz Institute and also hosts an interactive online bass school through Artist-Works (artistworks.com). In 2015 John released his 14th solo CD, entitled Brooklyn, with the "John Patitucci Electric Guitar Quartet" featuring Adam Rogers and Steve Cardenas on electric guitars and Brian Blade on drums. A documentary entitled Back in Brooklyn was filmed during the recording of Brooklyn and is currently being screened. In addition to his own groups, John continues to tour with The Wayne Shorter Quartet and a new trio, "Children of the Light", featuring Danilo Perez on piano and Brian Blade on drums. "Children of the Light" released their debut CD as a group in September 2015.